

Focus on Ability is a web and CD-based education and training system initiative for Minnesota WorkForce Center staff and employers to help them better understand and better serve people with disabilities in the employment arena. The initiative has three components: training modules which use extensive documentary video, a collection of basic information on disabilities, and a directory of Minnesota organizations that provide assistance to people with disabilities. This web and CD-based education and training system could be adapted for use in any state."